NBCC Foundation Awards 2018 Scholarship to Carlton F. "Perk" Clark

Tucson, AZ—The NBCC Foundation, an affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc. (NBCC), recently awarded one of the 2018 Center for Credentialing & Education (CCE) professional development awards to Carlton F. "Perk" Clark, of Tucson, Arizona. The goal of this scholarship program is to advance the professional identity and development of CCE credential holders. Mr. Clark will receive $500 to advance his professional identity and development.

Mr. Clark has a private practice of psychotherapy, clinical supervision, and organizational development in Tucson, Arizona. He has been a full-time clinician and consultant since 1975 and has published three peer-reviewed papers on the topics of computer uses in social work, transpersonal group psychology, and clinical supervision. He has also presented a three-unit course entitled The Psychology of Spirituality and Religion at the University of Arizona Department of Psychology.
